Independent Film Maker Chandu Yarram's Debut Feature Film "The Distance Between Us" Selected for Film Festival

Indian born independent film maker, Chandu Yarram's debut feature film, "The Distance Between Us", has been officially selected by "The World's Independent Film Festival (TWIFF)" and the "Greater Washington Immigration Film Festival (GWIFF)". It's world premiere at TWIFF will be between September 20 and 22, 2014 in San Francisco | Silicon Valley; and it will feature in the north east on October 26th 2014 in Fairfax, VA.

"The Distance Between Us" is a love story between a young, Indian immigrant, an ambitious software engineer, Megha, and Ravi. Megha sees her career as her strategy to break the cycle of poverty that she was born into. However, success doesn't come without sacrifice and the plot weaves through a set of choices of love and ambition where each decision leads to unexpected consequences. It's a story of broken ambitions but the triumph of the human spirit.

The movie was shot entirely in the US--in New Jersey, Delaware and Pennsylvania. Starring Rahul Rai, Leah Kavita, Akshay Reddy, Ariane Mallon, Ashok Chaudhry, Jonah Ehrenreich, Nicken Kotak, Cesar di Parra, Linda Elizabeth, Scott Gorbach, Roni Mazumdar, Axita Patel, and many others. Written & Directed by Chandu Yarram and Executive Produced by Sanjay Currie.
